pany at Glasgow. The capital of the company is £30,000, of which £17,000 represent the price of Mr. Liddell's tea garden at Neddavattam, estimated to cover 1,600 acres, of which several hundred acres are in a forward state and ready for plucking. The balance of £13,000 will be the working capital of the company, which is promised excellent returns, six per cent., in the following two years, and larger profits as the estates age. We notice the formation of this company as an indication of the estimation in which tea property continues to be held, notwithstanding the low quotation for the Indian article at the recent sales both at Home and in Calcutta. Mr. Liddell, the planting community is indebted for awakening interest and confidence abroad in investments of this description. Various reasons have been urged to account for the recent fall in prices of Indian tea. The London brokers and middle men have had no inconsiderable share in this result, but while holding them not altogether blameless, we are of opinion, that the tea planter himself must be credited with much of the depreciation. We cannot believe that a really good tea will fall to realize a good price. Carelessness in manufacture, resulting in a large admixture in the consignments of burnt tea, has doubtless operated against the ready and profitable sale of Indian tea. The low prices and ready sales of the last season's crop ought to induce our planting friends to devote more attention to the various processes of manufacture by which they will be able to turn out a really first class article. Mr. Liddell's company will not probably be the only one that will be formed this year, others will come into existence, and we hope that vested interests will bring pressure to bear on the Home authorities, and thus compel the Indian Government to remove the restrictions which it has thought fit to impose upon the acquisition of land in Southern India.—South of India Observer.

(London & China Express, Feb. 15.)

In the House of Commons on the 11th Feb. in reply to Mr. Stewart, Lord G. Hamilton said the reply of the Indian Government with reference to the Chafco Convention had been received and would be laid on the table of the House.

The first Levée of the season was held by the Prince of Wales on the 9th inst., at St. James's Palace. Presentations were considered as equivalent to those made to Her Majesty. The Diplomatic Circle at the Levée was attended by the Chinese and Japanese Ministers. Sir Thomas Wade was also present.

It is probable that Vice-Admiral Ryder will be offered the post of Naval Commandant at Devonport.

Vice-Admiral Rodney's term of office as President of the Royal Naval College at Greenwich will only last for one year.

It will be of interest to China readers to note the promotion of Captain D. B. Burn, originally aide-de-camp to General Whitehead, while in command in Hong Kong, leaving about two years ago, the 16th (Shirley) Regiment, he joined the 78th Hussars, and is already half-way up the list of captains.

The last mail from Peru announces that the first steamer from Hong Kong with Chinese emigrant labourers under the new rules is expected to arrive at Calao early in March. The Peruvian planters entertain great hopes of success from this emigration.

In the face of the discussion carried on in these columns regarding the obstructions placed by the Hongkong Government in the way of the despatch of the Str. Peruvia, this is news indeed, coming from such a source.—E. C. M.

The Hongkong Star, from Hongkong to New York, was abandoned January 24th, ninety miles from port; the crew were saved by the Minnehaha, and landed at Yarmouth, N.S., on the 28th.

As it is customary on regiments going into active service for officers attached to them, but holding staff appointments, to be ordered to rejoin, it is likely that Captain Heskisson, 80th (Staffordshire Volunteers) Regiment, will have to vacate his present berth of aide-de-camp to Lieut-General Sir F. Colborne, at Hongkong, and proceed to the Cape.

The subscriptions for the "China Famine Fund" paid into the Agra Bank now amount to £260, including £100 from Mr. Hambury. The sum of £1,500 has been transmitted by telegram to the Shanghai Committee.

The London Committee is not yet announced. The return of Sir Thomas Wade to Peking has been for some time doubtful, but we understand that it is now decided that he will resume his post in the autumn. Mr. Fraser will continue to discharge the duties at Peking as Chargé d'Affaires.

SUPREME COURT.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

(Before His Lordship Acting Chief Justice BROWDEN.)

25th March, 1878.

A NEW TRIAL BY SPECIAL JURY.

Ashburn v. Hang Yik, $700. This was an action on an agreement arising out of a charter party. The plaintiff is the master of the British barque Evening Star, and the defendants merchants in the Colony. In the month of July the defendants chartered the plaintiff's vessel to go to a place in Annam called Laoh Kout. The vessel arrived in August last at a place which was marked in the chart prior to the departure of the vessel from this place. A supercargo, as usual, was placed on board to look after the interest of the charter, but on arrival at the place indicated on the map, the charterer said it was not the place they wanted to go to, and asked the Captain to go elsewhere. The plaintiff declined to do so unless he was paid $700 for additional expenses. This was agreed to by the supercargo and an endorsement to that effect was made on the original charter party. This was found to be a wrong place also, and the charterer refused to pay the $700. An action was brought, and judgment was given in favour of the plaintiff. The defendants appealed against this decision before the full Court. Chief Justice Sir John Smale, failing in effecting a compromise, ordered a new trial of the case. It was this new trial that came before the Court to-day.

Mr. Toller appeared for the plaintiff. Mr. Haylar, Q. C., instructed by Mr. Breton, for the defendants.

The following special Jury of three was empanelled:—Messrs W. Reimers, J. G. T. Russell, and J. M. Forbes, Jr.

At the outset of the case Mr. Haylar applied for summary judgment, as the plaintiff was charged from the Colony.

Mr. Toller said it was unusual for a supercargo to be in an original suit to give security for costs on a new trial applied for by the defendants.

After brief argument Mr. Haylar, Q. C., quoting the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code, the Court thought the application was reasonable.

Mr. Toller said if that was the opinion of the Court he would give his personal security for the costs. He then proceeded with a narration of the facts of the case. He observed that as the plaintiff was now absent, all he could tender in the shape of evidence would be the documents. He proposed to put in an affidavit, which the plaintiff made in Manila.

Mr. Haylar objected to its admission, as, in view of the issue raised, it was absolutely necessary that the plaintiff should be examined in toto.

After hearing Mr. Haylar's argument in support of this objection, the Court allowed it. The plaintiff must either appear in person or have his evidence taken by commission at Manila.

Mr. Toller observed that if that was the ruling, it was practically denying justice to the plaintiff.

His Lordship said he was very sorry for it.

The case was then adjourned sine die.

Police Intelligence.

(Both Magistrates Sitting.)

25th March, 1878.

LARCENY.

John Toole, private B. M. 74th Regt., was charged with the above offence under the following circumstances. The complainant, John Phillips, a corporal in the same regiment, stated that the defendant's bed was in the same Barrack room with his. At 6.30 p.m. on the 22nd inst., he put $5 in notes, and two gold rings into his pillow case. The defendant was on the defendant's List and had to answer to his name every half hour. At 4 past 10 p.m. the defendant was found to be absent, and complainant had to take a platoon out to find him, but failed. At 5.30 a.m. on the 23rd the complainant found that he had lost the $5 notes and gold rings. A report was made to the Police and the defendant was arrested. The two gold rings and five of the notes were found on him and identified.—Inspector Lindsay proved the arrest of the defendant in brother No. 76. The defendant had nothing to say and was sent to three months' hard labour.

MALICIOUS INJURY.

Frederick Wm. Stratford, seaman S.S. Marcia, was charged with cutting the ropes of the tackle falls by the sides of the steamer, and throwing the same overboard. He did so because the Captain had refused to advance money to him. Fined $25, or one month's imprisonment.

UNLAWFUL POSSESSION.

Inspector Grimes charged Cheong Aleung, a boatman, with having two bags pepper and cloves in his boat, which, moreover, were not licensed. The defendant said he got the things from a junk, which had left the Colony. Remanded till to-morrow at noon.

PUBLIC GAMBLING.

Chan Ashing, a coolie, was charged with gambling in a house in Gilman Bazaar (No. 22). As the Police broke into the house with a warrant he jumped out of the window and fractured his leg. Remanded till 1st April.

ARRIVAL OF THE ENGLISH MAIL.

The P. & O. steamer Kashgar, Captain E. J. Baker, arrived here yesterday morning, with the London mails to Feb. 15th.

(Strait Times Extra.)

Madras, March 2.—Mr. John Miller, Administrator-General, died this morning of typhoid fever. He was the leading member of the bar and District Grand Master of the Freemasons in this Presidency.

Calcutta, March 3.—Yesterday evening a public meeting was held in the Town Hall under the auspices of the British India Association for the purpose of considering the propriety of a petition to Parliament on the subject of Indian expenditure and taxation. About 700 persons were present, nearly all natives. Resolutions were passed declaring the possibility of meeting all necessary State and family expenditure by judicious retrenchments and economical administration without further taxation. The same military charges and outlay on public works were especially condemned. The meeting was resolved to petition both Houses of Parliament. A committee of natives was appointed to carry out the resolution.

Rome, March 3.—Owing to strong representations from the Catholic Powers, Cardinal Simoni has resigned and Cardinal Franchi has been appointed Pontifical Secretary of State in his place.

London, March 4.—The treaty of peace between Russia and Turkey has been signed, Russia having renounced the claim to the tribute paid by Bulgaria and Egypt to the Porte. An agreement on all points has been arrived at and the treaty of peace is expected to be signed to-night. Earl Odagov has been appointed Under-Secretary of State for the Colonial Department and Viscount Bury Under-Secretary of State for War vice Earl Odagov.

The port of Salonika is not comprised in the new Bulgarian State, but Kustendje, Varna and Bourgas (query Burgas) are comprised. The indemnity of forty million pounds sterling in bonds is reduced to twelve millions.

London, March 5.—In the House of Lords last night, the Earl of Derby replying to a question, said the consoling of the Turkish fleet was not included in the Russian conditions of peace. In the House of Commons Mr. Gathorne Hardy, in presenting his Army estimates, said our Army was in excellent condition, and numbers 110,000 men, besides 400,000 auxiliaries. Only the preliminaries of peace have been signed. The definitive treaty of peace will be drafted at St. Petersburg. The fortress of Erzerum is to be restored to Turkey. The question of the passage of the Dardanelles is to be reserved for discussion hereafter.

London, March 6.—The idea of a European Congress instead of a Conference, is again dominant, as being more likely to lead to a common record. The treaty of peace stipulates that the ratifications shall be made at St. Petersburg before the expiration of a fortnight. Russia claims a war indemnity of 1,410 million roubles from Turkey, of which sum a cession of territory in Armenia represents 1,100 million roubles.

London, March 6.—The 310 millions of roubles, balance of 1,410 millions demanded by Russia in the revised peace conditions, after allowing 1,100 millions for the cession of territory in Armenia, are payable to the Russian Government in cash. The occupation of Erzerum and Trebizond is not mentioned in the conditions, but the Russian troops, when returning from Armenia, are to embark at Trebizond. As regards Bulgaria, the terms are the same as previously stated—namely, that a Russian Commission shall superintend the new tributary State for two years, whilst 50,000 Russian troops occupy it for the same period. The Russians are to evacuate European Turkey in three months, and Asiatic Turkey in six months. Reuter's special correspondent at Constantinople states that the Porte sanctions the Russian troops remaining at San Stefano while the British Squadron is in the Sea of Marmora. It is expected that the European Congress will be held at Berlin instead of the proposed Conference at Baden Baden, and that Prince Bismarck will be present.

Rome, March 7.—The Italian Legislature was opened to-day by the King in person. His Majesty, in his speech from the throne, promised to uphold Italian unity.

London, March 8.—A long debate took place in the House of Lords last night. The Earl of Derby, who took part in it, said the Treaty of Paris of 1856, which was revised in 1871, had ceased to exist, but was, however, binding until Europe sanctioned a substitute. He hoped that the Conference would effect a European and not a Russian settlement only of the question. The last, the Earl said, would be a difficult one, and the one that would interest General Ignatieff and Reuter's special correspondent at St. Petersburg. It is generally hoped that the Czar will make further concessions in the conditions of peace.

China.

SHANGHAI.

(News.)

We are informed that, in compliance with a memorial from the Tsumgi Yamen, the Emperor has conferred on all Commissioners of Customs the third rank in the Civil Service, and on Acting Commissioners the fourth rank, a measure that will facilitate their intercourse with native officials.

We hear that, on and from Monday next the C.M.S.N. Co. intend going back to the old rates of freight on the Ningpo route.

The junk King-Chiang-Lo, sunk in collision with the steamer Ningpo, has been raised by Messrs. Boyd and Co., and successfully floated to a safe position on the mud near their dock. It is said the junk is badly injured, but that the steamer must also have had a narrow escape from serious damage.

Messrs. Siemens & Co.'s steamer West Stanley, which had been for some days ashore on Plover Point, in the Yangtze, was got off at ten o'clock on Sunday morning, and proceeding at once down the river, anchored at Woosung. She had inchily received no damage, and has since proceeded on her voyage to Canton.

We presume something will be made of the ex-railway line, eventually. But the experiments being made upon it are, in the meantime, scarcely less trying than those to which the plant is being subjected in Formosa. The local authorities have had a quantity of soil placed on the metal ballast, under the impression apparently that they have thereby converted it—not into a ploughed field, but into a foreign road. Of course it is rather premature to speak of their ultimate design, as the workmen are at present simply digging soil from the waste ground and piling it up in heaps on the line, while making the railway in full costume look approvingly on. As they can scarcely be doing this with the idea of making the road impassable, we must surmise that the idea is to eventually rake it smooth, and declare the result a road.

We would venture, however, to suggest that it is not quite all that is needed to make a road; and we do hope that, while they are about it, the authorities will go a little farther and make a good job of the thing. It is so gratifying to see a disposition evinced to make a road at all, that we are far from desiring to carp at what is being done. We are only anxious that the money and the land should not be alike wasted, but that the road made should be well done, and that the road made a good and practicable one and not an impassable one.

The following dispatch has been received at St. Petersburg from Tashkend, respecting the capture of Kashgar:—

When the Chinese General appeared within sight of Aksai last September, the Doungan inhabitants immediately manifested a desire to surrender, and although the city was strongly fortified and his forces had resisted the enemy many months, a capitulation was at once agreed on. Whether the negotiations were carried on directly between the people and Tso-tsun-tan, or whether, as is more probable, the governor of the town took advantage of the desire for peace on the part of the inhabitants to accept the Chinese bribes to give up the fortress, is not yet authoritatively stated. At any rate the key of Kashgar surrendered without striking a blow, and immediately after the entry of Tso-tsun-tan the city was given over for plunder. For several days scenes of the most frightful description ensued, and the atrocities were only suspended when it became apparent to the Chinese General that the place, which on account of its resources he had chosen for his headquarters, would become utterly depopulated if the excesses of his soldiers were not checked. Several thousands of the people fled to the Russian frontier, where they received assistance from the Russian authorities. A few days after, the Chinese army, 20,000 strong, set out for Kashgar, accompanied by 15,000 Doungans. On its way it was met by a deputation from the town of Tashkent, submitting the place to the Chinese. At Kotan a similar desire prevailed, but the Chinese General, instead of directing his steps towards it, as had originally been intended, when he heard a rumour that Bek Kull Bek was there, proceeded direct to Kashgar. No opposition encountered him on the way, and on his arrival the city capitulated without firing a shot. Bek Kull Bek fled, nobody knows whither. His wives and family sought refuge on Russian territory. Two thousand Kashgarians also fled to the frontier, where they were absorbed by the Russian authorities. Among them were four Turkish officers who had been sent by the Sultan to drill the forces of Yakob Beg. Yarkand and Kotan are the only two Kashgarian towns remaining to be occupied by the victorious Chinese. The fall of the latter is imminent, and the former will not long afford a shelter to the Emir, who is supposed to have fled there with a few of his followers.

A correspondent writes:—The notice in your paper to the effect that the Emperor of China had conferred on Commissioners of Customs the third rank in the Civil Service, &c., is not quite correct. What has been done is, a Civil button of the third rank has been conferred on Commissioners of Customs, and a Civil button of the 4th class on Acting Commissioners. The two things are very different. The acting Taotai here is, I believe, only of the 6th Civil Service rank (officially during tenure of Taotaihip he is of 4th rank, but he has conferred on him a Civil button of the 1st rank. Chin is of the 6th or 7th Civil Service rank, and has had conferred on him a button of the 3rd rank. A notice of the change of rank would have to be memorandized about by the Board of Civil Appointments, in conjunction with the Board of Rites, and have to be gazetted. The conferring of a button can be done without appearing in the Gazette. A Commissioner of Customs is still as he was before, of the 9th grade, as I make it out; but he has now the permission to wear a button of the 3rd class.

It is reported that Lin, the present Chinese Representative at Berlin, is to be recalled, and his place taken by Li Fung-pao, a mandarin who accompanied Mr. Giquel to Europe in charge of the Naval students. The rumour goes that Lin has been rather antagonistic to Kwo, and has deprecated the former's frank and truthful reports as too favourable to foreigners. This has naturally weakened the effect of the former's despatches, and if the rumour is true we shall be glad to hail Lin's recall as evidence that his influence is falling.

NINGPO.

In consequence of the opposition of the Ningpo, which was placed on the Ningpo and Shanghai line a few days since, in opposition to the China Merchants' Co., freights had been reduced fifty per cent., and Chinese passengers were carried for twenty cents, and provided with tea and rice. Now, the old charges have been resumed. On the arrival of the C.M.S.N. Co.'s steamer at Ningpo yesterday morning, there was considerable excitement amongst the Chinese passengers, most of whom had taken their passages under the impression that the reduced system of fares was still in force, and strenuously objected to pay the fare of one dollar, which was demanded from them. The vessel, instead of coming alongside the wharf, as is customary, anchored in the middle of the stream and none of the resolute passengers were allowed to land until the matter had been referred to the agent of the Company, who, we understand, found it discreet not to insist upon payment of the higher fare.—N. C. D. News.

DIARY OF THE WAR.

(Compiled from the London Daily Papers.)

FRIDAY, Feb. 8.—The very latest scare from which the public in this country have suffered is the unfounded rumour that the Russians had entered Constantinople. In London during yesterday there was considerable excitement, and the brief telegrams sent to the provinces produced much unnecessary alarm. The same news was circulated on the Continent, but failed to produce the same impression there, and at Berlin was even ridiculed. The fact, as stated in the telegrams, is that in accordance with the conditions of the armistice, the Turks have evacuated the outer lines of the fortifications of Constantinople, where several Russians had arrived to assist in the settlement of the boundaries which the respective forces should preserve. These have been drawn across the peninsula to the west of Constantinople and between the Black Sea and the Sea of Marmora, leaving between them a neutral zone. A Committee has been appointed by the Roumanian Senate to draw up a protest to the Guaranteeing Powers against the retrocession of Bessarabia to Russia. Free commercial intercourse by land and sea is to be established again between Turkey and Russia. The Grand Duke Nicholas has telegraphed this news to St. Petersburg.

News has arrived of the cessation of hostilities between Greece and Turkey. The claims of Greece are to be referred to the projected Conference. In the meantime the Greek army will continue in the provinces of Thessaly and Epirus, Turkey undertaking not to attack the insurgents in Crete. The place where the Conference shall meet is not yet decided on.

SATURDAY, Feb. 9.—We have at length an official statement by the Russians as to the bases of peace on which they insisted before granting an armistice to the Turks. They leave to the Russian commanders, both in Europe and in Asia, the right of demanding the evacuation of certain strategic points and fortresses as a material guarantee for the acceptance of the armistice conditions by the Porte. The Turkish Plenipotentiaries are required to proceed to Odessa or Sebastopol, in order to negotiate the preliminaries of peace. General Ignatieff is to be one of the Russian Plenipotentiaries. The Russians are, under the armistice conditions, to occupy Widin, Rustchuck, Silistria, Belgrade, Ezerum, &c. It is stated that should the Sultan deem it advisable the Russians will temporarily occupy Constantinople. As to Gallipoli, the occupation is left to the discretion of Russia. In consequence of these conditions a portion of the British fleet has been ordered to leave Besika Bay and proceed to Constantinople for the protection of the British residents there. The information is confirmed that the Russians at present occupy the lines of the Bujuk Tohekmedje-Darros fortifications, about eighteen miles from Constantinople. There are no defenses between these lines and the capital. The Russians are now in possession of Dedegatch, and are advancing upon Gallipoli. According to the conditions of the armistice, the lines of Boudale will have to be evacuated by the Turks. Sultan Pacha has left Constantinople for Larissa. The Italian fleet has reached Salonika. Greece has declared that Thessaly is annexed to the Greek territory. It is said that the country is in favour of the acquisition of the territory. No settlement has yet been come to as to the place at which the Conference shall meet, but it is suggested by the Russians that it should be some neutral place.

MONDAY, Feb. 11.—It is denied at Constantinople that there were any secret clauses in the peace preliminaries with regard to an alliance between Russia and Turkey, but the majority of the Turkish Ministers are understood to favour such an alliance. A Vienna newspaper is informed that arrangements are being made for a meeting between the Sultan and the Grand Duke at Tchetaldja. It is reported by some, though denied by others, that the British ships of war have arrived in the Bosphorus, and three Austrian men of war have received orders to proceed thither, while the Italian vessels which were stationed at Salonika have left their moorings for the same purpose. Prince Charles is reported to have replied to General Ignatieff that "no Chamber, no Ministry, and not a single Roumanian," would ever consent to cede the least particle of territory. All the Roumanian newspapers oppose the retrocession of Bessarabia. According to a telegram of Friday evening's date, from Athens, the Greek army, which has been recalled from Epirus, will be stationed on the frontiers until the close of the European Conference. Much public indignation has been caused at Athens by the recall of the troops from Epirus. By the Government the situation is still considered to be critical. Orders have been given for arms and ammunition sufficient for an army of 50,000 men, and the Mobile National Guard is to be raised to 140,000 men. The Russian defeat before Batoum is confirmed. Ismail Pacha has refused to surrender Erzerum, on the plea that he had not yet received any orders to that effect. He was allowed to telegraph for instructions to Constantinople. The Russian reply to the proposal for a Conference, while accepting Austria's invitation, betrays an intention on the part of Russia not to allow certain points in the preliminary conditions to be discussed. That the Conference will be held in nevertheless regarded in official circles here as certain, though the same confidence does not exist as to the eventual result being satisfactory.

TUESDAY, Feb. 12.—Prince Gortschakoff has sent a telegram to the Russian Ambassadors at the principal European capitals, stating that in consequence of the British Government having determined to send a portion of its fleet to Constantinople, and other Powers having also resolved to send ships of war thither for the protection of their subjects, Russia is obliged to consider "the proper means of protecting those Christians whose life and property might be threatened," and to that end the entry of a portion of the Russian troops into Constantinople is directed. Orders have accordingly been sent to the Grand Duke Nicholas. The report as to the arrival of the English ships at Constantinople was premature. They have returned to Besika Bay, as the Porte has, up to the present time, refused the issue of the necessary firman to enable them to pass through the Straits. In the House of Lords, last evening, the Earl of Beaconsfield said that the Government had no information with respect to numbers of Russian warships having crossed the Balkans for the purpose of manning Turkish ships-of-war; and the Earl of Derby said that some delay had arisen in sending the fleet up to Constantinople, but that he had no doubt the difficulty would be speedily removed. Austria has applied to the Porte for authority to pass through the Dardanelles, but the French Government have resolved not to send their ships to the Bosphorus. Complaints have been made by the Greek Patriarch to the Turkish Parliament of massacres perpetrated by Circassians in thirteen Greek villages in the neighbourhood of Constantinople. As to the rumour of a secret alliance between Russia and the Porte, which is so emphatically denied at headquarters, the Vienna Correspondent of the Daily Telegraph observes that it is clear that no special treaty need be signed, the Porte being so completely at the mercy of Russia that resistance of any kind is completely out of the question, and if Russia chooses to dictate to the Sultan a declaration of war against England, he will be forced to sign it.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 13.—Direct communication by telegraph with Constantinople has been restored. Salvet Pacha left the capital yesterday morning en route for Adrianople to settle the final terms of peace. The English fleet is still awaiting orders. The official statement is made in St. Petersburg that the Circular of Prince Gortschakoff respecting the occupation of Constantinople in case the British fleet goes to the Bosphorus is much approved in Russia. The Grand Duke Nicholas has expressed his satisfaction at the stoppage of the fleet. In the Turkish Parliament several deputies urged the Premier to "act with consideration towards England in dealing with the question of the passage of the Dardanelles." A telegram from Vienna says that Austria does not object to the retrocession of the Roumanian portion of Bessarabia. According to a telegram of yesterday's date from Pola, the Austrian turret-ship Kaiser Mar was to leave for the Levant; the iron-clad Hogberg, with Rear-Admiral Barry aboard, being expected to follow to-day. Both at Paris and Berlin there is a general belief that war between England and Russia is inevitable. It is also inferred that a Russian occupation of Constantinople has been decided on, while from Vienna we hear that twelve Russian battalions will enter Constantinople to-day, a separate treaty between Russia and Turkey having been made. At Constantinople it is regarded as doubtful whether the Conference will be held, the Russians, as it appears, objecting to interference. A telegram which has been delayed in transmission says that the Governor of Erzerum having refused to capitulate, preparations for the bombardment of the city were being made. The telegram is, however, dated the 31st ult., the day on which the armistice was signed.

THURSDAY, Feb. 14.—The Morning Advertiser has reason to believe that the British fleet has passed the Dardanelles, and is now in the sea of Marmora. Admiral Hornby was left full discretion as to the force he would take up with him, and, in all probability, a larger number of ships than was at first contemplated has been ordered up. The Porte has contented itself with a formal protest. A rumour prevailed last night that Lord Derby had resigned; but the Morning Post confidently contradicts it. Information is stated to have been telegraphed to the Porte by the Grand Duke Nicholas that in the event of the British fleet entering the Bosphorus the Russians will march into Constantinople. Only in the event of disturbances breaking out at Constantinople, which actually place in peril the lives of the French inhabitants, will the French Government send any vessels of war into the Bosphorus. It has, therefore, not applied for a firman, our Paris correspondent states, and has no intention of doing so. Measures are being taken by the Roumanian Government to mobilize all able-bodied men in case of need. The Austrian subjects residing in Roumania have been summoned to report themselves at the Austrian Consulate in view of a possible mobilisation of the Austrian Army. A despatch from Adrianople says that on the Russian entering Enki Djuma they found the town terribly devastated, and burning in several places. The mutilated dead bodies of 200 persons, including several women and children, were met with in the suburbs. The Czarowitz has issued an ordre du jour to his army, praising their heroism and reminding them that they may be called upon to defend the territory of an ally. The Lom army is leaving its cantonment, and is to be colonized along the Austro-Hungarian frontier. The Russian troops in Western Bulgaria and south of the Western Balkans are also expected to move northwards. General Zimmerman has been nominated to the command of the Danubian fortresses, which he has been instructed to strengthen by new earthworks. The retrocession of Bessarabia is said to be a sine qua non condition of the Russian peace terms. Hostilities have been renewed in Thessaly, and news of further massacres of Christians by Bashi-Bazouks has been telegraphed to Athens from Crete.
